ABOUT THE RESERVE

This nature reserve is home to the majestic Jonkershoek Mountains and parts of the Jonkershoek valley. Visitors first pass through the MTO plantations to get access into the Nature Reserve, which then includes the Jonkershoek Valley, with trails crossing the peaks to the back of the Bergriver dam area. The Valley includes several hiking trails traversing multiple streams, mountain peaks and valleys. Visitors can expect breath taking views with beautiful mountain fynbos. Keep your eyes open for sightings of the “blushing bride” and a variety of bird species.

ACTIVITIES

SWIMMING	With four rivers finding their source in the Jonkershoek Mountains, there are many rock pools and waterfalls to discover as you explore the reserve's trails.
BIRD WATCHING	No designated bird watching areas; however, a variety of birds can be found throughout the reserve.
DAY WALKS / HIKING	The reserve offers four challenging hikes ranging between 5.3 km and 18 km .
MOUNTAIN BIKING / CYCLING	There are cycling routes at the MTO property further down the road, but not at Jonkershoek Nature Reserve. Visitors need to arrange their own mountain biking permits directly from MTO.
