HOW TO GET THERE

📍 34°37'14.21"S 18°89'32.65"E

ABOUT THE RESERVE

Located in the quaint coastal town of Betty's Bay in the Overberg, the Stony Point Nature Reserve is home to a unique colony of African Penguins. Stony Point offers the public the chance to see these wonderful flightless birds up close, via the boardwalk through the colony, which allows the public to observe the penguins go about their daily activities in their natural habitat, without disturbing or disrupting them. There is also a community restaurant adjacent to Stony Point, which sells refreshments and food during the day and an Eco-Venue available for group meetings.

ACTIVITIES
BIRD WATCHING	The boardwalk through the colony affords the public the opportunity to see the penguins close up, without disturbing their daily activities.
SWIMMING	Swimming is allowed in the sea at designated areas only.
RESTAURANT ON SITE	On the Edge restaurant is a community operated business serving breakfast, lunch and refreshments.
