

Located in the quaint coastal town of Betty's Bay in the Overberg, Stony Point Nature Reserve is home to a unique colony of African Penguins. Stony Point offers the public the chance to see these wonderful flightless birds up close, via the boardwalk through the colony. The boardwalk allows the public to observe the penguins go about their daily activities in their natural habitat, without disturbing or disrupting them.

Also present in the colony are various species of cormorant including the Crowned cormorant, Cape cormorant and Bank cormorant, all of which breed on the outer rocks. There are also Hartlaub's Gulls and Kelp Gulls which forage in the colony, while the Rock Hyrax, more commonly known as the Dassie, can be seen on surrounding rocks.

The colony lies on the site of the old Waaygat Whaling Station, which was used to harvest and process whale meat in the early to mid-1900s. Remnants of the machinery and infrastructure for this long-defunct industry can still be found at the site.

There is also a community restaurant adjacent to Stony Point, which sells refreshments and food during the day.

From Cape Town via N2

From Caledon via N2

Take the offramp towards Hermanus at Botriver and turn left on the bridge. Continue to the T-junction and turn left onto the R43 towards Kleinmond and Hermanus. At the Kleinmond turnoff turn right onto the R44 and pass through the town of Kleinmond in the direction of Betty's Bay. Drive until you reach the coastal town of Betty's Bay and turn on to Porter Road. Follow Porter Road for 2.5km, then turn right on to Crassula Avenue. Turn right on to Disa Road at the four way stop 600m down Crassula Avenue, and then follow the signs to Stony Point, which will be on your left.
